Benefits: 20 Days Holiday + Bank Holidays and Pension Scheme.

Within an ever-growing warehouse Production Plus are now looking to recruit further warehouse staff to work with the Warehouse Manager and his team. You will be expected to achieve the high standards required to have the correct kit picked, checked and delivered in a timely manner against tight deadlines.

Outline of the role:

You will be working in a busy warehouse with the Warehouse Manager and other Prep Technicians, as well as other staff members. You will be required to pick and check Audio Visual, Lighting, Sound and Rigging kit from an equipment pull sheet. Once checked, the kit will need to be loaded into our vehicles ready to go off to an event.

The reverse will happen when the event is over, the vehicles will return and the kit will need to be unloaded, checked and returned to the warehouse ready to go out again.

You must have an eye for detail, be conscientious, flexible with working hours as there will be overtime where necessary. You will need to be physically fit and confident with numeracy and also have a Full UK driving licence.

Full training will be supplied for the successful candidates.

If you wish to join our team, please e mail recruitment@productionplus.co.uk and add 'Warehouse Prep' to the subject field.
